

Envision@UCL is an event for young women of African or Caribbean heritage, who are interested in going to university and are about to make important decisions about their futures.

There will be the opportunity for students to:

- Gain valuable advice to help them plan their future
- Get a taste of a university lecture
- Develop practical skills to help them prepare for university life
- Meet current UCL students and find out more about UCL
- Speak to professionals about potential careers paths

Envision@UCL is free, and lunch and refreshments will be provided.

Eligibility Criteria

- A female student of a Black African, Black Caribbean, Mixed Black (e.g. White and Black Caribbean) or Other Black background.
- In Years 10-12, attending a state-funded school, academy or college in the UK.
